

Britannia Arms Songwriter Showcase Contest Information, Rules and Regulations

1. Contest Format.

Description of Songwriter Showcase. The 2010 Songwriter Showcase (“the Contest”) is open to unsigned songwriters in all-popular musical styles (except instrumental songs). All songwriters will compete against other popular styles of music. Prizes are not awarded for each musical style, as winners are determined from all musical styles collectively.

a. Preliminary Round. There will be ten (10) scheduled preliminary showcase competitions that will be held at Britannia Arms Restaurant located at 8017 Soquel Drive in Aptos starting March 2, 2010 and continuing to May 4th, 2010. Each Preliminary Round will have a maximum of twelve (12) contestants. Each Contestant will be permitted to perform two (2) songs and each songwriter’s performance shall be limited to twelve minutes (12) for both songs. Failure to follow abide by this performance schedule will result in disqualification. The three (3) songwriters that have the highest scores for each Preliminary Round shall advance to the Semi Final Rounds.

b. Semi Final Round. There will be two (2) Semi Final Rounds that will be held at Britannia Arms Restaurant on May 11th and 18th, 2010. Each Semi Final Round will have fifteen (15) contestants. Each Contestant will be permitted to perform two (2) songs and each songwriter’s performance shall be limited to twelve minutes (12) for both songs. Failure to follow abide by this performance schedule will result in disqualification. The four (4) songwriters that have the highest scores for each Semi Final Round shall advance to the Final Competition.

c. Final Competition. The final competition will comprise the eight (8) songwriters from the two (2) Semi Final Rounds and will be held at Britannia Arms Restaurant on May 25, 2010. Each songwriter will be given twelve minutes (12) to perform two (2) songs. The scoring system that was used in the Preliminary and Semi Final Rounds will also be used in the Final Competition to determine the winners of the Contest.

2. Eligibility.

a. For purposes of this Contest, an amateur songwriter is defined as a person who does not have an existing publishing or recording agreement with a music publishing or record company. All contestants must be at least eighteen (18) years of age. Employees and relatives of M.A.R.S. Studios, Britannia Arms Restaurant, Offshore Music, Made in Santa Cruz, the Contest’s sponsors, the judges and the volunteers assisting with the administration of this Contest are not eligible. Any individual that has won a prize in the Contest during the past two (2) years will be eligible to compete in the Contest but shall NOT be eligible for a prize.

b. Original Compositions. Each songwriter represents that the submitted songs are each under five (5) minutes in length and are his or her original work. The songwriter further represents that he or she holds all necessary rights in and to the songs and is permitted to submit them in the Contest. A songwriter may enter no more than two (2) songs in either the Preliminary or Semi Final Rounds or in the Final Competition. Songwriters are permitted to perform the same songs at the Semi Final and/or Final Competition.

c. Your entry into the Contest constitutes permission to use your name, likeness and biographical material for use in future advertising and publicity of the Contest without compensation.

3. Contest Entry Requirements.

a. Each songwriter must complete and sign the Contest’s entry form. In addition, the songwriter must include two (2) lyric sheets per song. Failure to complete the Contest entry form or sign it will result in disqualification.

b. Songwriters shall register by telephone by calling the phone number listed on the entry form so long as the entry form is received prior to the songwriter’s scheduled Preliminary Showcase date. M.A.R.S Studios, Britannia Arms Restaurant and the Contest’s sponsors make no representation that the desired date and/or time will be available.

- c. In the event the songwriter's requested date for a Preliminary Round and/or time slot is unavailable an alternative date and time will be given. All songwriters who have pre-registered by telephone will be guaranteed a time slot at the Preliminary Round up to the close of registration.
- d. A limited number of "stand by" slots will be available for each Preliminary Round in the event there remain open time slots. Walk-up songwriters may sign up for a "stand by" time no later than 30 minutes prior to the commencement of that evening's Preliminary Round.

4. Preliminary Showcase Registration.

- a. In addition to the Contest's entry form, all songwriters must sign the Contest's release form prior to participating in that evening's Preliminary Round. These forms shall be made available to the scheduled songwriters (and stand-bye) during the registration period that shall begin one (1) hour prior to the commencement of the Preliminary Showcase. All songwriters who have pre-registered by telephone will be guaranteed a time slot up to the close of registration for the applicable Preliminary Round. Any available time slots will be given to standby songwriters on a first-come first-served basis.
- b. Due to time, space and other production limitations, only solo artists are eligible to participate in the Contest (i.e. no bands). Facilities are available for playback of CD background tracks. Accompaniment by drum machine, keyboard, or bass guitarist is perfectly acceptable. Details of requirements and setup must be cleared with the stage manager who may disallow any piece of equipment because of limitations, time, stage size, or equipment.

5. Contest Judges.

A panel of music industry professionals will judge all songs. At each Preliminary Round there will be a two (2) judge panel and at each semi final there will two (3) judge panel. The Final Competition shall have a three (2)-judge panel. The judges for each Preliminary and Semi Final Round, as well as the Final Competition will not be disclosed until the start of the applicable competition in order to insure impartiality.

6. Scoring Method.

The songs will be judged based upon the song's musical content, lyrics and composition as defined below:

- a. Musical Content. The musical content score awarded for chord structure, melody, mood and emotion. Unique bridges and rhythms add to this score.
- b. Lyrical Content. The lyrical content score awarded for clear communication of the song's concept. Good phrasing, harmony, form, rhythm, hooks, and creativity. Each song must be in the English language. You represent and warrant that the lyrical content of each song does not contain any profanity, obscenity or shall interfere or infringe under common law or statutory law with the rights of any other person, including without limitation, contract rights, copyrights, rights of publicity and privacy trademarks, service marks, trade names, and logos.
- c. Composition. The composition score awarded for overall inter-relationship of music and lyrics.
- d. Each judge will rate the song from one to ten in each of the above three (3) criteria. The total point score is the sum of each judge's score in each of the three (3) criteria (i.e. 30 points maximum per song per judge). The two (2) songwriters who receive the highest point total at each Preliminary Round will be eligible to participate in the Final Showcase. The scoring system used during the Preliminary and Semi Final Rounds shall be used to determine the winners at the Final Competition. By entering the Contest you agree that all decisions by the judges shall be final and will not be disputed.
- e. In the event of a tie the songwriter who receives the loudest applause from the audience will determine score at any Preliminary or Semi Final Round. We reserve the right to disqualify any entry that does not meet the rules herein outlined or a contestant that is disqualified, and we are not obligated to return any entry fee.
